Illegal encroachments around buildings at Moradabad Hills Vasant Vihar

†573. SHRI RAMA SHANKER KAUSHIK: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is the largest pond of Delhi on Moradabad Hills at Vasant Vihar;

(b) if so, the acreage of land thereof and the name of the authority which has imposed ban on visiting that pond; and

(c) the steps proposed to be taken to free the illegal encroachments on all the buildings situated on the hill immediately and to develop them?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI O. RAJAGOPAL): (a) and (b) As per the Survey Report of the monuments in Delhi published in the year 1920, 15 Nos. buildings including a baoli were reported to be existing on the Moradabad Pahari. This baoli having an area of 1128 sqm. (55.79 m x 20.42 m) forms part of the land measuring 13.68 acres comprising Survey No. 219/3, Delhi Cant., which is reported to be a private land held by the Delhi Wakf Board. While the Delhi Wakf Board has informed that they did not put any restriction on the access to this baoli. The Archaeological Survey of India has informed that the baoli is under the control of the Abdul Mannan Academy.

(c) The Delhi Wakf Board has informed that a proper Survey of all the Wakf properties has been undertaken under the supervision of Commissioner (Wakf) and further action would be taken on receipt of the Survey Report.

The Archaeological Survey of India has reported that out of these 15 buildings, a few buildings have been renovated in the past by the Abdul Mannan Academy; which has altered the historical and architectural features of the buildings considerably and, as such, their protection as monuments of national importance will not serve any purpose. However, the Archaeological Survey of India intends to undertake a study of the monuments afresh, which have not been renovated heavily for the purpose of their protection and further development.
